

CONVENER

Meaning: A convener is a person who organizes and leads a meeting or gathering, ensuring participation and facilitating discussions.

1. The convener of the conference ensured that all voices were heard during the discussions.
2. As the convener of the committee, she was responsible for setting the agenda and facilitating the meetings.
3. The local council appointed a convener to lead the initiative for community improvement projects.
4. During the workshop, the convener encouraged participants to share their ideas and collaborate on solutions.
5. His role as convener required not only organization but also the ability to mediate differing opinions among the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convener>