

CONVENTIONALIZATION

Meaning: Conventionalization refers to the process of standardizing or formalizing practices, styles, or traditions, often resulting in a reduction of originality or authenticity.

1. The conventionalization of art styles can often stifle creativity and innovation.
2. In many cultures, the conventionalization of traditions can lead to a loss of their original meaning.
3. The study examined the conventionalization of language in digital communication among teenagers.
4. Conventionalization within the fashion industry has resulted in predictable trends that lack originality.
5. As society evolves, the conventionalization of social norms may require reevaluation to remain relevant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conventionalization>