

CONVERSION

Meaning: Conversion: the process of changing or transforming something from one form, use, or function to another.

1. The conversion of the old factory into luxury apartments has revitalized the neighborhood.
2. After much debate, the committee approved the conversion of the park into a community garden.
3. Her successful conversion from a skeptic to a believer took years of research and personal experience.
4. The software's conversion from a desktop application to a mobile app was met with enthusiasm from users.
5. He was fascinated by the conversion of sunlight into energy through the solar panels on his roof.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/conversion>