

CONVERT

Meaning: Convert: to change something into a different form, function, or use.

1. She decided to convert her garage into a cozy home office.
2. Many people struggle to convert their ideas into actionable plans.
3. The charity aims to convert unused public spaces into community gardens.
4. With the new software, you can easily convert files from one format to another.
5. He hopes to convert his passion for cooking into a successful restaurant business.
6. She decided to convert her garden into a vegetable patch to grow her own food.
7. The company aims to convert its entire fleet of vehicles to electric by the end of the year.
8. After much deliberation, he chose to convert to a new religion that resonated with his beliefs.
9. The software allows users to convert audio files into different formats with ease.
10. He managed to convert his passion for photography into a successful career as a freelance photographer.
11. She decided to convert her garage into a home office for better productivity.
12. The organization aims to convert waste materials into renewable energy sources.
13. He managed to convert the skeptics by presenting compelling evidence.
14. After months of training, she was able to convert her passion for painting into a profitable business.
15. They plan to convert the old factory into a modern art gallery to attract tourists.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convert>