

CONVERTIBILITY

Meaning: Convertibility refers to the ability to exchange a currency or asset for another currency or asset, typically without restrictions.

1. The convertibility of the currency played a crucial role in international trade agreements.
2. Investors often consider the convertibility of assets when assessing their portfolios.
3. The bank offered a special product that guaranteed the convertibility of bonds into stocks.
4. Regulations surrounding the convertibility of cryptocurrency are still evolving globally.
5. He was intrigued by the convertibility feature of the new financial software he was testing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convertibility>