

CONVERTIBLE

Meaning: Convertible refers to a type of vehicle with a roof that can be retracted or removed, or a financial instrument that can be exchanged for a different form, typically shares of stock.

1. The luxury car she bought was a sleek convertible that turned heads wherever she drove.
2. They decided to invest in a convertible bond, which offered the potential for high returns.
3. On sunny days, nothing felt better than cruising along the coastline in their convertible.
4. The convertible sofa easily transformed from a comfortable couch into a bed for guests.
5. He admired the convertible roof, which could be opened with just the push of a button.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convertible>