

CONVINCEMENT

Meaning: Convincement refers to the quality or state of being convincing or persuasive in argument or presentation.

1. Her arguments lacked convincement, leaving the audience unconvinced.
2. The convincement of his position was evident in the way he presented his evidence.
3. Despite her strong convincement, many still disagreed with her views.
4. The convincement of his speech inspired many to take action.
5. She spoke with such convincement that it was hard not to believe her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convincement>