

CONVINCIBLE

Meaning: Convincible: capable of being convinced or persuaded.

1. Her arguments were so well-structured that even the most skeptical audience found her convincing.
2. In a debate, being convincing can sometimes be more valuable than simply presenting facts.
3. The scientist's thorough research made her findings convincing to her peers.
4. He knew that a convincing presentation could sway the committee's decision in his favor.
5. It is essential for a leader to be convincing in order to inspire trust and confidence in their team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convincible>