CONVINCING

Meaning: Convincing: capable of causing someone to believe that something is true or real; persuasive.

1. Her argument was so convincing that even the skeptics began to reconsider their stance.
2. The actor delivered a convincing performance that left the audience in tears.
3. The scientist provided convincing evidence that supported her groundbreaking theory.
4. After reviewing the data, the committee found the proposal to be both practical and convincing.
5. His calm demeanor and clear reasoning made his explanation particularly convincing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convincing