

CONVOCATIONIST

Meaning: A convocationist is a person who advocates for or organizes formal gatherings, particularly those celebrating academic achievements or milestones.

1. The convocationist emphasized the importance of community engagement during the graduation ceremony.
2. As a passionate convocationist, she dedicated her life to organizing events that celebrated academic achievements.
3. During the annual meeting, the convocationist shared innovative ideas to enhance the experience for new graduates.
4. Her role as a convocationist allowed her to connect with students and inspire them to pursue their dreams.
5. The convocationist's speeches were known for their motivational tone and deep understanding of student concerns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convocationist>