

CONVULSIONARY

Meaning: Convulsionary: relating to or characterized by convulsions or involuntary muscle contractions.

1. The patient's sudden convulsionary episodes alarmed the medical staff.
2. Her convulsionary movements were indicative of a deeper neurological issue.
3. The scientist studied the convulsionary patterns in response to the new medication.
4. During the lecture, he described the historical convulsionary outbreaks that had shaped public health policies.
5. In moments of extreme stress, he experienced brief convulsionary spasms that left him disoriented.
6. The patient's convulsionary episodes raised concerns among the medical staff.
7. His convulsionary movements during the seizure were both alarming and heartbreaking to witness.
8. In the midst of a convulsionary fit, the child fell to the ground, drawing gasps from onlookers.
9. The doctors were puzzled by the sudden onset of convulsionary symptoms without any clear diagnosis.
10. Her convulsionary reactions to stress were becoming increasingly frequent, prompting a visit to the neurologist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convulsionary>