

CONVULSIVELY

Meaning: CONVULSIVELY: in a manner characterized by sudden, uncontrollable movements or reactions, often due to intense emotion or physical distress.

1. She laughed convulsively, unable to contain her amusement at the hilarious joke.
2. The child thrashed convulsively in her sleep, caught in the grip of a vivid nightmare.
3. He reacted convulsively to the sudden loud noise, jumping in surprise and spilling his drink.
4. As the music played, she danced convulsively, lost in the rhythm and energy of the moment.
5. The patient began to shake convulsively, prompting the nurse to rush to her side for assistance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/convulsively>