

COPARTNERSHIP

Meaning: Copartnership refers to a business arrangement in which two or more individuals share profits and responsibilities equally.

1. The success of their project can be attributed to the strong copartnership they developed over the years.
2. In a copartnership, both parties share the profits and responsibilities equally, ensuring a balanced business relationship.
3. The copartnership between the two firms allowed them to leverage their strengths and expand into new markets.
4. She entered into a copartnership with her colleague to combine their expertise in the field of marketing.
5. Challenges in communication often arise in a copartnership, but overcoming them can lead to a more fruitful collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/copartnership>