

COPARTNERY

Meaning: Copartnery refers to a collaborative partnership between individuals or entities that work together towards shared goals, often pooling resources and expertise.

1. The success of their business was attributed to the strong copartnery they formed at the outset.
2. Through their copartnery, they were able to pool resources and expertise, leading to greater innovation.
3. The legal documents outlined the terms of their copartnery, ensuring clarity in their shared responsibilities.
4. In times of crisis, their copartnery proved invaluable, as they supported each other both financially and emotionally.
5. The copartnery between the two organizations exemplified how collaboration can lead to mutual growth and success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/copartnery>