

COPPERING

Meaning: Coppering refers to the process of applying a layer of copper to a surface, often used in metalworking and artistic applications.

1. Coppering is often used in the context of metalworking to describe the process of applying a layer of copper to another surface.
2. The artist spent hours coppering the intricate designs on the sculpture, adding a warm glow to the final piece.
3. In the old days, ships were coppered to protect the hull from barnacles and other marine growth.
4. The technique of coppering has been revived in modern art, where it brings a unique texture and color to the work.
5. Her passion for coppering led her to explore various methods of metal treatment and finishing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coppering>