

COPYING

Meaning: Copying refers to the act of reproducing someone else's work or style without permission or originality.

1. Copying someone else's work can lead to serious academic consequences.
2. The artist was criticized for copying the style of famous painters without adding her own flair.
3. In the digital age, copying files from one device to another has become incredibly easy.
4. He spent hours copying the document to ensure every detail was accurate.
5. Copying and pasting text without proper attribution is a form of plagiarism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/copying>