

COPYIST

Meaning: COPYIST: A person who transcribes written texts or replicates artworks, often by hand, with attention to detail and accuracy.

1. The medieval copyist painstakingly transcribed each manuscript by hand.
2. In the world of art, a skilled copyist can replicate the style of famous painters with remarkable accuracy.
3. The copyist was often overlooked, yet their work preserved countless literary treasures for future generations.
4. Before the invention of the printing press, a copyist's role was essential in disseminating knowledge.
5. Her dream was to become a renowned copyist, specializing in the reproduction of ancient texts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/copyist>