

COR

Meaning: 'Cor' is an informal exclamation expressing surprise or admiration.

1. The coroner carefully examined the scene before making a determination of the cause of death.
2. She felt a surge of emotion as the choir sang the cor anthem during the memorial service.
3. The corral was filled with horses, each one more beautiful than the last.
4. His interest in marine biology led him to study the behavior of the corals in the Great Barrier Reef.
5. The old map depicted a hidden treasure marked by a red 'X' near the infamous pirate's cor.
6. The artist's use of vibrant colors created a stunning cor that captured everyone's attention.
7. In the world of biology, the cor is essential for understanding cellular processes.
8. During the debate, he made a strong cor that swayed many opinions in his favor.
9. The ancient ruins were a cor of history, offering insights into past civilizations.
10. Her smile had a cor that brightened the room, making everyone feel at ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cor>