

CORDITE

Meaning: Cordite is a smokeless propellant made from nitroglycerin and nitrocellulose, commonly used in ammunition and explosives.

1. Cordite is a propellant used in many types of ammunition and explosives.
2. The military switched to cordite for its superior performance in artillery shells.
3. During World War I, cordite was essential for producing powerful munitions.
4. Despite its effectiveness, the use of cordite declined with the advent of newer materials.
5. Research into safer alternatives to cordite continues in modern weaponry development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cordite>