

CORIVAL

Meaning: CORIVAL: A competitor or opponent, particularly in a contest or rivalry.

1. The two athletes displayed a fierce rivalry, each pushing the other to new heights in their pursuit of victory.
2. As the business world evolved, the once friendly competitors became staunch rivals in the search for market dominance.
3. In high school, I found that my biggest rival was also my closest friend, a dynamic that fueled both our ambitions.
4. The chess match drew in a large audience, captivated by the intense competition between the two skilled rivals.
5. In the world of politics, their rivalry became legendary, shaping the future of their party for years to come.
6. The two athletes had been fierce rivals since their high school days.
7. In the world of business, he viewed his competitor as a corival rather than an enemy.
8. Their long-standing feud made them corivals in every competition they entered.
9. Despite their differences, they fostered a mutual respect as corivals in the industry.
10. The intense rivalry between the teams added excitement to every match they played.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corival>