

CORKINESS

Meaning: CORKINESS refers to the characteristic flavor or aroma in wine that is reminiscent of cork, often associated with a certain texture or quality that can enhance the drinking experience.

1. The corkiness of the wine made it a perfect fit for the evening's celebration.
2. After years of storage, the corkiness of the vintage bottle was still remarkably intact.
3. Her laughter had a corkiness to it that always brought a smile to everyone around.
4. The team appreciated the corkiness of the new brainstorming session, which sparked creative ideas.
5. His writing style was characterized by a certain corkiness that kept readers engaged and entertained.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corkiness>