

CORNIFICATION

Meaning: Cornification is the process by which epithelial cells undergo hardening and keratinization to form a protective barrier.

1. Cornification refers to the process by which epithelial cells become hardened and keratinized.
2. The cornification of skin cells is essential for forming a protective barrier against environmental damage.
3. In certain skin conditions, abnormal cornification can lead to thickened patches known as keratosis.
4. Research on cornification has important implications for understanding various dermatological diseases.
5. The study of cornification helps scientists develop treatments for conditions related to skin barrier dysfunction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cornification>