

CORPORATOR

Meaning: A corporator is a member of a corporation or governing body, particularly one involved in decision-making and policy development within an organization or community.

1. The corporator presented a compelling argument during the board meeting.
2. As a recognized corporator, she played a crucial role in shaping local policies.
3. Every corporator is expected to uphold the values of transparency and accountability.
4. The newly elected corporator promised to advocate for the needs of the community.
5. His experience as a corporator helped him navigate complex legislative challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corporator>