

CORRADIATE

Meaning: To corradiate means to radiate or spread out in rays or beams from a central point.

1. The sun's rays began to corradiate through the trees, casting intricate shadows on the forest floor.
2. In the artwork, the colors seemed to corradiate from the center, drawing the viewer's eye outward.
3. The scientist explained how the particles corradiate in a way that creates a mesmerizing light display.
4. As the fireworks exploded in the night sky, they corradiated brilliant hues that lit up the entire landscape.
5. Their laughter seemed to corradiate warmth and joy, making everyone around them feel at ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corradiate>