

CORRADIATION

Meaning: Corradiation refers to the simultaneous exposure of biological entities to radiation from multiple sources, affecting processes such as cellular growth and mutation rates.

1. The scientist conducted experiments to measure the effect of corradiation on cellular growth.
2. In the study of genetics, corradiation has been shown to influence mutation rates in certain organisms.
3. The researchers found that corradiation had a significant impact on the development of the embryos.
4. Understanding the principles of corradiation is essential for advances in therapeutic techniques.
5. The phenomenon of corradiation can lead to unexpected results in materials exposed to multiple radiation sources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corradiation>