

CORRECTION

Meaning: Correction: a change made to rectify or improve a written work or information.

1. The teacher made a correction to the student's essay to improve clarity.
2. After reviewing the report, she submitted a correction to the initial findings.
3. In the meeting, he acknowledged the correction needed in the project timeline.
4. The editor emphasized the importance of making a thorough correction before publication.
5. Her timely correction of the mistake saved the team from potential setbacks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correction>