

CORRECTIONAL

Meaning: Correctional refers to the systems, facilities, or programs designed for the rehabilitation and management of individuals who have committed crimes.

1. The correctional facility implemented new programs aimed at reducing recidivism among inmates.
2. She decided to pursue a career in correctional education to help rehabilitate offenders.
3. The state government allocated additional funds for correctional services to improve living conditions.
4. Correctional officers play a crucial role in maintaining safety within the prison environment.
5. After serving time, he was determined to turn his life around and stay away from correctional systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correctional>