

CORRECTOR

Meaning: A corrector is a person who reviews and amends written material to eliminate errors and improve accuracy.

1. The editor relied on a skilled corrector to ensure the manuscript was free of errors.
2. As a corrector of academic papers, she was meticulous in her attention to detail.
3. The software features an advanced corrector that highlights grammatical mistakes in real time.
4. He worked as a corrector for a major publishing house, reviewing texts for clarity and coherence.
5. The corrector's suggestions significantly improved the quality of the final document.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corrector>