CORRELATABLE

Meaning: Correlatable: capable of being shown to have a relationship or connection with something else, especially in a statistical context.

1. The findings of the study are correlatable with previous research on the same topic.

2. In many cases, the variables are not only related but also correlatable in a statistically significant way.

3. Her emotional responses were correlatable with the patterns of her recent experiences.

4. The data sets were found to be correlatable, revealing deeper insights into consumer behavior.

5. Understanding these trends helps us identify factors that are correlatable across different demographics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correlatable