

CORRELATIVE

Meaning: Correlative (adjective): relating to or denoting a relationship between two or more things in which they influence or correspond to each other.

1. The study revealed a correlative relationship between sleep quality and academic performance.
2. In her analysis, she found that high levels of stress were correlative with decreased productivity.
3. The researchers aimed to determine if there was a correlative effect between diet and mental health.
4. Understanding correlative factors can help us develop more effective intervention strategies.
5. His findings suggest a correlative link between exercise frequency and overall well-being.
6. The teacher explained how correlative conjunctions work to link similar ideas in her lesson.
7. In the study, researchers found a correlative relationship between sleep duration and academic performance.
8. The author used correlative phrases to enhance the rhythm and flow of her poetry.
9. Understanding correlative variables is crucial for accurately interpreting the results of the experiment.
10. The project aimed to explore the correlative effects of diet and exercise on overall health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correlative>