

CORRELATIVELY

Meaning: Correlatively means in a manner that indicates a mutual relationship or connection between two or more factors.

1. The research findings suggest that increased exercise correlatively leads to improved mental health.
2. Climate change and its effects on biodiversity are correlatively linked to human activity.
3. The artist's style evolved, and correlatively, her audience grew more diverse over time.
4. As the economy strengthened, correlatively, job opportunities became more plentiful.
5. The team's performance improved, and correlatively, their confidence in each other increased.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correlatively>