

CORRESPOND

Meaning: To communicate with someone in writing, typically through letters or messages.

1. The teacher asked the students to correspond with a pen pal from another country.
2. Many people find it difficult to correspond with friends who live far away.
3. The data collected from the survey will correspond with our previous findings.
4. It's important to correspond promptly to maintain a good relationship.
5. Her opinions often correspond with the latest trends in fashion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correspond>