CORRESPONDENCE

Meaning: Correspondence refers to the exchange of written communication, such as letters or emails, between individuals or parties.

1. The correspondence between the two scientists led to groundbreaking research findings.
2. She kept all her correspondence in neatly labeled folders for easy access.
3. Their correspondence revealed a deep bond that transcended time and distance.
4. The university requested that all correspondence be sent via email to streamline communication.
5. After reviewing the correspondence, it was clear that a misunderstanding had occurred.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correspondence