

CORRESPONDENCY

Meaning: Correspondency: the state of being in agreement or correspondence, particularly in ideas, findings, or concepts.

1. The correspondency between the two studies highlights the impact of social media on mental health.
2. In her letter, she emphasized the correspondency of their ideas and how they could work together.
3. The correspondency of the data collected from various sources strengthened the researchers' conclusions.
4. During the meeting, the correspondency of the proposals from different departments was evident.
5. Their correspondency over the years has fostered a deep mutual understanding and respect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correspondency>