

CORRESPONDENT

Meaning: A correspondent is a journalist or reporter who provides news reports from a specific location or on a particular subject.

1. The correspondent reported live from the war zone, providing updates to the viewers.
2. Each correspondent at the conference was tasked with covering different aspects of the event.
3. She wrote a heartfelt letter to her old friend, who had become an overseas correspondent.
4. The newspaper hired a new correspondent to enhance its international news coverage.
5. In her role as a foreign correspondent, she often found herself in unpredictable situations.
6. The foreign correspondent reported live from the conflict zone, providing updates on the situation.
7. As a seasoned correspondent for the national newspaper, she had traveled to over twenty countries in pursuit of stories.
8. During the conference, the correspondent asked probing questions that revealed deeper insights into the panelists' views.
9. He received a letter from a longtime correspondent detailing her experiences during her recent travels abroad.
10. The correspondent's article shed light on the local community's struggles, earning widespread recognition for its empathy and depth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/correspondent>