

CORROBORATIVE

Meaning: Corroborative: serving to confirm or support a claim or theory with additional evidence or information.

1. The lawyer presented corroborative evidence that strengthened her client's case.
2. His findings were corroborative of previous research, adding weight to the existing theory.
3. The witness's testimony served as corroborative support for the defendant's alibi.
4. The study provided corroborative data that confirmed the effectiveness of the new treatment.
5. Experts noted that the corroborative nature of the two reports enhanced their credibility.
6. The detective presented corroborative evidence that linked the suspect to the crime scene.
7. In her research, she sought corroborative data to strengthen her hypothesis.
8. The witness provided corroborative testimony that confirmed the timeline of events.
9. Corroborative findings from multiple studies have reinforced the theory's validity.
10. To build a strong case, the lawyer needed corroborative documents to support his claims.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corroborative>