

CORROSIVE

Meaning: Corrosive refers to a substance that can cause damage or destruction to materials, especially metals, through chemical action.

1. The corrosive effects of the acid were evident on the metal surface.
2. She handled the corrosive chemicals with extreme caution to avoid any accidents.
3. His corrosive remarks during the meeting created a tense atmosphere among the team.
4. The corrosive nature of the substance required special storage conditions to prevent damage.
5. Years of exposure to the corrosive environment had left the machinery in disrepair.
6. The corrosive nature of the acid made it dangerous to handle without protective gear.
7. Over time, the corrosive effects of the saltwater took a toll on the metal structure.
8. She learned that certain cleaning agents can be corrosive and should be used with caution.
9. The scientist carefully studied the corrosive properties of various substances in her experiments.
10. Corrosive materials require special storage to prevent damage to the environment and personnel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corrosive>