

CORRUMPABLE

Meaning: CORRUMPABLE (adjective): capable of being morally corrupted or influenced to act dishonestly.

1. The politician was known for his integrity, refusing to associate with those who were corruptible.
2. In a world where power often corrupts, few remain uncorruptible in their quest for wealth.
3. The watchdog group aimed to expose the corruptible nature of the contract negotiations.
4. Many believed that the new regulations would help limit the influence of corruptible officials.
5. Her idealism clashed with the reality that even the most principled individuals could be corruptible under pressure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corruptable>