

CORRUPT

Meaning: Corrupt (adjective): characterized by a lack of integrity or honesty, often involving bribery or unethical practices, especially in a system or among officials.

1. The scandal revealed a corrupt system that prioritized profit over ethics.
2. She refused to associate with any corrupt officials during her campaign.
3. His once admirable character became tainted by corrupt influences.
4. The documentary shed light on the corrupt practices within the government.
5. Many believe that unchecked power inevitably leads to corrupt behavior.
6. The investigation revealed that several officials had corrupt dealings with private companies.
7. She refused to support any corrupt practices that undermined the integrity of the organization.
8. Corrupt systems often lead to widespread public disillusionment and distrust in governance.
9. The documentary exposed how corrupt leaders exploited their power for personal gain.
10. Many citizens rallied for reform to combat the corrupt elements within the political system.
11. The investigation revealed that several officials had corrupt ties to local businesses.
12. His corrupt practices ultimately led to the downfall of the once-prominent organization.
13. Many citizens lost faith in the government due to the corrupt actions of its leaders.
14. To eradicate corruption, the new administration promised sweeping reforms and greater transparency.
15. The documentary exposed how corrupt politicians manipulated the electoral process for personal gain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corrupt>