

CORRUPTFUL

Meaning: Corruptful (adjective): characterized by or prone to corruption, especially in terms of unethical or immoral practices.

1. The corruptful practices of the officials led to widespread public outrage.
2. He was accused of corruptful behavior that undermined the integrity of the organization.
3. The novel vividly portrays a society plagued by corruptful leaders and their deceitful schemes.
4. In a corruptful environment, honesty often becomes a rare and valuable trait.
5. Efforts to combat corruptful influences in government require both vigilance and reform.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corruptful>