

CORRUPTLY

Meaning: Corruptly: in a manner characterized by dishonesty, unethical behavior, or the abuse of power for personal gain.

1. The official was accused of acting corruptly during the tendering process.
2. She believed that the election results were influenced corruptly by powerful interests.
3. The investigation revealed that funds had been distributed corruptly among several officials.
4. He spoke passionately about how power can corruptly affect the integrity of leaders.
5. The organization vowed to fight against practices that corruptly undermine justice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corruptly>