

CORVORANT

Meaning: Corvorant: a type of aquatic bird, often resembling a cormorant, known for its graceful flight and fishing abilities.

1. The corvorant glided gracefully over the shimmering lake, searching for its next meal.
2. As the sun set, a flock of corvorants perched on the rocky cliffs, silhouetted against the vibrant sky.
3. During the coastal expedition, we were thrilled to spot a rare corvorant nesting among the jagged rocks.
4. The corvorant is known for its impressive diving abilities, often catching fish with remarkable precision.
5. While hiking along the shore, we observed a corvorant drying its wings after a successful fishing trip.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/corvorant>