COSTAL-NERVED

Meaning: Costal-nerved refers to leaves that have prominent, rib-like veins resembling the structure of ribs, contributing to their distinctive texture and appearance.

1. The costal-nerved leaves of the plant provided a unique texture that caught the gardener's eye.
2. During the botanical expedition, the researchers noted several species with distinctly costal-nerved foliage.
3. Understanding the significance of costal-nerved features can enhance our knowledge of plant evolution.
4. The artist chose to depict the costal-nerved structure of the leaves in vibrant colors to highlight their beauty.
5. In her thesis, she argued that the costal-nerved arrangement contributed to the plant's overall resilience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/costal-nerved