

COSTARDMONGER

Meaning: A costardmonger is a vendor or seller of fruits, particularly apples and pears, often associated with a market setting.

1. The costardmonger at the market always had the freshest apples and pears.
2. In the quaint village, the costardmonger was known for his storytelling as much as his fruits.
3. During the festival, a costardmonger set up an elaborate stall filled with colorful produce.
4. The costardmonger skillfully negotiated prices with both farmers and customers alike.
5. Many locals relied on the costardmonger for seasonal fruits that were hard to find elsewhere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/costardmonger>