

COTTOID

Meaning: Cottoid refers to a fabric or material that resembles cotton in texture, often characterized by durability and comfort, commonly used in outdoor gear and decorative patterns.

1. Cottoid fabrics are often favored for their durability and comfort in outdoor gear.
2. The artisan showcased a variety of cottoid patterns that captivated the audience.
3. Her dress was made from a vivid cottoid material that caught the sunlight beautifully.
4. In the textile industry, cottoid is known for its versatility and ease of care.
5. He decided to use a cottoid weave in his latest design to enhance the overall texture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cottoid>