

COTYLEDONARY

Meaning: Cotyledonary refers to the leaves or structures that develop from the cotyledons of a seed, playing a vital role in the early growth of a plant.

1. The cotyledonary leaves of the plant emerged shortly after germination.
2. In botany, cotyledonary structures play a crucial role in seedling development.
3. The researcher noted that the cotyledonary arrangement varied significantly among species.
4. During the experiment, the team observed the cotyledonary nodes closely for growth patterns.
5. Understanding cotyledonary functions can enhance our knowledge of plant evolution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cotyledonary>