

COUGH

Meaning: Cough (verb): To expel air from the lungs suddenly with a sharp sound, often as a reflex to clear the throat or airways.

1. She let out a loud cough that echoed in the quiet room.
2. After a long walk in the cold, he felt a tickle in his throat and began to cough.
3. The doctor recommended some syrup to help soothe her persistent cough.
4. He tried to stifle his cough during the important meeting, but it was no use.
5. Coughing is often a sign that your body is trying to clear an irritant from your airways.
6. She tried to suppress a cough during the quiet presentation.
7. The doctor advised him to drink warm tea to soothe his persistent cough.
8. After spending the night in the cold, he woke up with a nagging cough.
9. Coughing fits can be a symptom of various respiratory illnesses.
10. The sudden cough startled everyone in the silent library.
11. She tried to suppress her cough during the meeting.
12. The persistent cough kept him awake at night.
13. After running in the cold air, he felt a tickle in his throat that led to a cough.
14. She reached for a glass of water to soothe her dry cough.
15. The doctor advised him to see a specialist if the cough lasted more than a week.