

COUNCILOR

Meaning: A councilor is an elected or appointed member of a council, typically involved in local government decision-making and representing the interests of constituents.

1. The councilor proposed new measures to improve public transportation in the city.
2. During the town hall meeting, the councilor listened attentively to the concerns of residents.
3. After much deliberation, the councilor voted in favor of the environmental protection initiative.
4. Community members praised the councilor for their commitment to local education funding.
5. As a newly elected councilor, she was eager to make a positive impact in her community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/councilor>