COUNTERCLAIM

Meaning: A counterclaim is a legal claim made by a defendant in response to a plaintiff's claim, asserting their own allegations or grievances.

1. The defendant filed a counterclaim, arguing that the plaintiff was responsible for the damages.
2. In response to the lawsuit, she decided to submit a counterclaim to address her own grievances.
3. The judge ruled that the counterclaim was valid and warranted a separate hearing.
4. His counterclaim included allegations of fraud that could complicate the original case.
5. After reviewing the evidence, the attorney advised her to pursue a counterclaim to strengthen her position.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/counterclaim