

COUP

Meaning: A coup is a sudden, often violent overthrow of a government or ruling authority.

1. The sudden coup led to a significant shift in the country's political landscape.
2. After months of tension, the military executed a coup in the dead of night.
3. The coup was met with widespread protests from the citizens demanding their rights.
4. She was fascinated by the historical accounts of famous coups that changed nations.
5. His novel delves into the chaos and intrigue surrounding a fictional coup d'état.
6. The military coup resulted in a significant shift in the country's political landscape.
7. After years of unrest, the unexpected coup caught the international community off guard.
8. She described the sudden takeover as a coup that would change the course of history.
9. The leaders of the coup promised to restore order and improve living conditions for citizens.
10. In the aftermath of the coup, protests erupted as citizens demanded a return to democracy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/coup>